BACKPACKS OF HOPE PROGRAM

Last week, we reached out to you for donations to support the addition of 12 students to our program. Thanks to your incredible response, we were able to welcome those students and ensure they have nutritious food to sustain them over the weekends.

But the need continues to grow. We have now received a new request from another school, and we simply cannot turn away hungry kids.

Starting next week, we will be adding an additional 24 students to our program, bringing the total number of schools we serve to 18.

The demand for our Backpacks of Hope program is steadily increasing, and we are committed to meeting this challenge head-on. Donate today to help us say YES to 24 more students.
