

Below are discounts that you can use with your EBT card. All have been verified as of 05/31/2023

AMAZON PRIME DISCOUNT

Recipients of Washington Basic Food and EBT Cash benefits (or Medicaid benefits) can qualify to save 50% off their Prime membership. To see if you qualify, visit amazon.com/prime/qualify. If you're wondering if a membership is worth it, here are the benefits:

- Free Prime two-day shipping
- Unlimited streaming of TV shows and movies (thousands available)
- Borrow one free Kindle e-book each month (you can download the Kindle reading app, even if you don't have a Kindle)
- Unlimited, ad-free music streaming

If you order off Amazon a lot or are looking for a cost-effective alternative to traditional TV services, Amazon Prime will probably be worth it to you.

FARMERS MARKETS

You can also use your Washington EBT card at participating farmers' markets to purchase fresh produce. The USDA's Food Nutrition Service (FNS) provides a monthly list of the names and locations of markets across the country that are currently authorized to accept Basic Food benefits.

INTERNET & PHONE

Through the Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP), eligible Basic Food recipients could receive up to a $30 per month discount on internet service and up to $75 per month for households on qualifying Tribal lands. Basic Food households may also qualify for free or low-cost landline or cell phone service through the Federal Lifeline Program. Consult with your service provider for more information.

COMCAST INTERNET

Comcast is another company that offers low cost internet for EBT card holders. The Comcast internet plan offers high speed internet for only $9.95 per month. If you qualify for their low-cost internet, they'll allow you to purchase a laptop or desktop computer for $149.

HOT & READY PIZZA AT 7-ELEVEN

Buy a frozen pizza at select 7-Eleven locations and they'll cook it for you on site! Before you go, it is best to call the location you are thinking about going to so you can make sure they will accept your card.

STRAWBERRYPLANTS.ORG

Use your EBT card for You Pick farms! Strawberry Plants is dedicated to helping people develop an appreciation for all things strawberry, and the love of strawberries often develops on a U-Pick strawberry farm as buckets of beautiful berries are plucked for pies, preserves, and fresh eating. Go to their website to find what farms are near you that you can use your EBT card for.

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM OF SKAGIT COUNTY

The Children's Museum of Skagit County welcomes low-income families for $3 per person, up to four people per EBT card. They also accept WIC, CHIP, Provider One, Apple Health or Foster Parent cards for this discount. Proof of eligibility is required. The Children's Museum also hosts Community Access Day (CAD) every second Tuesday of the month from 10 am to 5 pm. Admission is on a "pay as you can," basis, including admissions for no charge for families who can't afford to pay.

KIDSQUEST CHILDREN'S MUSEUM - BELLEVUE

If you have both an EBT card and photo ID, then you can pay just $3 for up to four people to play at KidsQuest Children's Museum. Children who are less than one year old are always free. On the third Thursday of the month, admission is always just $1 each between 5pm and 8pm.

EVERETT IMAGINE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

Designed with kids ages 1-12 in mind, Imagine Children's Museum encourages children to experiment, pretend, splash, think, wander, create and explore. Meander past the giant tree to discover the wildlife clinic, drama stage, railroad, an airplane and so much more!

MUSEUM OF HISTORY & INDUSTRY (MOHAI)

Discover the history and the future of the great city of Seattle with the rare objects, historic images and hands-on exhibits offered by MOHAI. Permanent exhibits include True Northwest, Maritime Seattle and the Bezos Center for Innovation. Temporary Exhibits include the Kid-struction zone, Edible City and more.

MUSEUM OF POP CULTUER (MoPOP)

Designed with kids ages 1-12 in mind, Imagine Children's Museum encourages children to experiment, pretend, splash, think, wander, create and explore. Meander past the giant tree to discover the wildlife clinic, drama stage, railroad, an airplane and so much more!

PACIFIC SCIENCE CENTER (PacSci)

The Pacific Science Center has an incredible access membership for families who are receiving public assistance (including both Medicaid and Washington Food Stamps). It's just $19 PER YEAR for up to 2 adults and 6 children!

WING LUKE MUSEUM

As a part of Museums for All, SAM offers free admission to low-income families and individuals receiving SNAP benefits when you show your EBT card. This includes five free admissions.

Below are discounts that you can use with your EBT card. All have been verified as of 05/31/2023

SEATTLE AQUARIUM

Discounted one-time-use admission tickets and annual memberships are available to qualifying Washington state resident individuals and families with an EBT card. $5 general admission tickets for adults and youth; children ages three and younger free

- Limit of six tickets per household (toddlers excluded from maximum).
- Tickets are available only at the Aquarium for the next available time slot. Online reservations are not available.

Memberships - $35 annual memberships

- Covers two adults, up to six of their children (ages 18 and younger), plus one free guest with every visit.
- For more information, visit our membership page (<https://www.seattleaquarium.org/membership>).
- Memberships available only at the admission gate. Next available entry time slot can be reserved at time of purchase.

Valid verification and photo ID must be provided at time of purchase. At least one adult must be present. Verification documents can be provided by either an adult or child in the household. Acceptable forms of documentation include: Washington Quest (EBT) card, WIC voucher/card, ProviderOne Services card.

SEATTLE ART MUSEUM

As a part of Museums for All, SAM offers free admission to low-income families and individuals receiving SNAP benefits when you show your EBT card. This includes 4 free admissions and children under the age of 14 are free and do not count towards an admission pass.

SEATTLE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

Bring your Washington EBT card or ProviderOne Card to Seattle Children's Museum and receive special discounted admission! Food stamps (EBT) cards enable you to visit the museum for just $1 per person for the entire family. A ProviderOne card grants the person named on the card to play for $1, as well.

SEATTLE CHILDREN'S THEATRE

Families with a current WA food stamps card can get up to two adult tickets for $10 each and six FREE children's tickets! Children must be accompanied by an adult. Weekend performances must be purchased day-of-show, but Thursday and Friday performances may be purchased up to two weeks in advance.

WOODLAND PARK ZOO

If you have WIC or EBT, you can get $5 per person (children 2 and under are free) tickets to Woodland Park Zoo! You can purchase tickets for up to 6 family members. You must be a Washington State resident to use this discount. They also offer a $35 per year membership called the Explorer Pass, for families who receive EBT or WIC in Washington State. The pass covers two named adults and up to six children 3-18 years old (children 2 and under are free). For Washington residents only.

BURKE MUSEUM

EBT and SNAP cardholders can enjoy Burke Museum for free. The museum also holds Free First Thursdays where all guests get free admission on every first Thursday of the month.

PACIFIC SCIENCE CENTER (PacSci)

The Pacific Science Center has an incredible access membership for families who are receiving public assistance (including both Medicaid and Washington Food Stamps). It's just $19 PER YEAR for unlimited access for up to 2 adults and 6 youth in the same household plus 2 named caregivers (nannies, grandparents, etc.)

The ACCESS Membership benefits also include:

- 50% discount on general admission for guests
- 20% discount on IMAX tickets, laser shows, and theater concessions
- $15 discount on summer camps, plus early registration access
- Reciprocal admission to 350+ science centers

POINT DEFIANCE ZOO & AQUARIUM

Discount Tickets: up to six daytime admission tickets for $5 each for the adult receiving the benefit and their legal dependents (aged 3-18).

Discounted Membership: an annual Wild Access membership for $40. This household membership covers two named adults and all legal dependents ages 3-18. Children two and under are always free.

Wild Access discounts cannot be combined with other offers or promotions. Photo ID and EBT Card or WICC card must be presented at our front gate to purchase Wild Access daytime admission tickets and memberships.

NATIONAL NORDIC MUSEUM

The First Thursday of every month is FREE. Please select your tickets below and your complimentary discount will be applied at checkout. Reserve your tickets in advance online and make sure to stop at the Admissions Desk to check in for First Thursday. Access to special exhibitions is available for $5 per person on First Thursdays.

NORTHWEST RAILWAY MUSEUM

The Northwest Railway Museum invites the public to experience a working railroad while also exploring the history of the railroads in the Pacific Northwest. The museum is open seven days per week and spans several locations, including the historic Snoqualmie Depot, Railway History Campus and Centennial Trail Exhibit.

YMCA

Discounts for low-income individuals and families. If you qualify for food stamps, you may qualify for a discounted YMCA membership! Contact your local YMCA for details.